

Providing for Success.....

- 100% of students have demonstrated academic improvement
- Students with social anxiety or school phobia improved their attendance
- School to work transitions result in gainful employment
- Students are provided tools and strategies to cope with personal emotions and conflicts
- Students gain appropriate and lasting friendships
- Students become more goal-oriented and motivated about their lives after high school and transitioned well into the real world.

Dr. Susan Roth
Director of Special Services
856 – 784 – 4441 Ext. 1243

Eastern Regional High School

400 Laurel Oak Road Suite 103
Voorhees, NJ 08043

www.eccrsd.us

ELA

Eastern Learning
Academy

Eastern Regional High School's Emotional
Support Program

Eastern Learning Academy

Eastern Regional High School's Emotional Support Program

- Small group and independent study
- Various electives (Media, Public Speaking, Personal Finance, Geography, American Government)
- Job Skills and Job Shadowing in the community
- Yoga
- State of the art technology (personal iPads, desktop computers, SmartBoard)
- Differentiated and Individualized Instruction
- Cross-curricular theme based instruction
- Counseling (group and one on one)
- Family Intervention and Education
- Individualized behavior plan with incentives
- Group incentives
- Class trips
- Full access to high school guidance counselors and case managers
- Full access to sports, activities, and clubs offered at the high school
- Full opportunity to transition back to the high school for academics
- One-on-one attention provided by teachers, classroom assistant, and social worker
- Opportunities to socialize with peers and adults in a safe and appropriate environment
- Non-judgmental, safe, and nurturing environment
- Hands on learning with practical applications
- Guest speakers
- Access to the community
- Door-to-door bus service